An iron and ironing board is also available from reception.

Maintenance

In an effort to keep our levels of standard high, we kindly request you to inform reception should you experience any issues concerning maintenance or service.

Malaria and Insects

Sheppard Boutique Hotel is regularly treated with an environmentally friendly pesticide to control the spread of insects and pests. Please note we are not situated in a high-risk malaria area. However, if you plan on visiting the Kruger National Park and other surrounding areas, it is advisable to take the necessary precautions. Please enquire at any local pharmacy for expert advice on the matter. As we are situated in a tropical climate, a variety of flying and crawling insects are found in the area. If you prefer to keep the windows in your room open at night, we strongly advise that you switch off the light and television in the room as the light naturally attracts the insects and that you make liberal use of insect repellent which may be obtained from reception.

Music and Socialising

Guests are implored to take note of the tranquil setting and peaceful atmosphere and respect their fellow guests by not causing any disturbance whatsoever. The playing of music which is audible to fellow guests is therefore strictly forbidden and any socialising should be kept respectable.

Parking

Vehicle parking is free of charge but may become challenging during times of high volume and therefore guests are requested to park in such a manner that your vehicle does not cause an obstruction to others. The 24-hour security officer is always ready to help and assist.

Pets

No pets are allowed at Sheppard Boutique Hotel.

Pool

The use of the pool is available at all times for all guests provided the peace and quiet of all the other guests are respected. Pool towels are available from reception and we request that you please do not use the bathroom towels in your room at the pool. Children making use of the pool facilities are the sole responsibility of their parents or guardians and children under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an adult at all times.

Restaurant

The Grillroom is the fully licensed on-site restaurant at Sheppard Boutique Hotel where breakfast is served as well as dinner. Dinner is served from an a la carte menu and the operating hours are Monday to Saturday from 18h00 to 20h00. Please note that bookings for dinner is essential and need to be made at least one day in advance. The menu is included in this folder for your convenience. Please inform Sheppard Boutique Hotel at your earliest convenience should have any special dietary requirements. A list may also be obtained from reception concerning other recommended restaurants in the area.

Room Service

Please note that room service is not available at Sheppard Boutique Hotel.

Security

There is a security guard on duty at the main entrance 24-hours a day and we are also linked to an armed response company for additional support and peace of mind.

Smoking Policy

Due to strict legislation in South – Africa regarding smoking, kindly refrain from smoking in the rooms as well as the corridors. The restaurant as well as the deck area is also a no-smoking zone. Please enquire from reception the location of the designated smoking areas.

Tours and Activities

Please enquire from reception as to the wide variety of brochures and information on activities in the surrounding areas.

Visitors

Visitors visiting guests are not allowed in the rooms and may only be entertained at The Grillroom provided a reservation was made in advance.

WiFi

A wi-fi connection is available free of charge and throughout the whole property and the password is: Sh3pp4rd@1
